

COLONEL'S REVIEW LUNCH

SATURDAY
7TH JUNE 2025
9.00 - 15.00

A seat at this exclusive parade as we celebrate the best of British ceremonial in the heart of central London, followed by a drinks reception outside of the picturesque Wellington Barracks, and a 3-course lunch inside The Guards Museum - surrounded by four centuries of history and artefacts.

The Colonel's Review is an annual event, the culmination of months of intense preparation and hard work, in one final chance to demonstrate perfection, before the King's Birthday Parade.

The event will see hundreds of Guardsmen, standing tall in their scarlet tunics and bearskin caps, mounted Household Cavalry, and even the field guns of King's Troop, all accompanied by the splendid music of the Household Division Bands.

Individual
Shared table
£350

Table
Up to 10
£3000

Exclusive Event
Up to 50
£15,000

BOOK NOW:

events@guardsmuseum.org.uk

All prices plus VAT